Short-title and commencement.—In exercise of the powers conferred under Clauses (f) and (g) of Sub-section (2) of Section 32 read with Sections 14 and 15 of the NCTE Act, 1993 (No. 73 of 1993) and further read with Rule 7 (4) of the NCTE Rules, 1997 the National Council for Teacher Education hereby makes the NCTE (procedure to be followed in processing applications for recognition received from institutions existing prior to the establishment of NCTE) Regulations, 2001. They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette

2. Applicability These Regulations shall be applicable to all teacher education institutions existing prior to the 17th August, 1995 which have valid recognition of competent authorities and offering any of the Courses in teacher education, for which norms and standards have been prescribed by the NCTE

3. Procedure to be followed in processing applications 0.(iii) (iv) (v) (vi) The applications received from teacher education institutions referred to in clause 2 above and offering a course in teacher education on the date of application may be considered by the Regional Committees of the NCTE without NOC if they are accompanied by an application fee of Rs. 5,000/- as prescribed for new institutions. Last date for receipt of applications prescribed in the NCTE Regulations will not apply in such cases. The Regional Committees, while scrutinising such applications have to satisfy themselves that the Course in teacher education offered has been continuing prior to the establishment of the NCTE, i.e. the 17th August, 1995, by verifying such details like the year from which the course has been running continuously without break, name of the affiliating university, copy of the affiliation order, examinations conducted and results declared, approval, if any, granted by the State Govt. The Regional Committees may, if considered necessary, obtain the view of the State Govt. in the matter. The Regional Committees, after due examination, should make specific recommendations to the Council for accepting the application for further consideration. Process of grant of recognition as per Section 14(3) of the NCTE Act should be taken up by the Regional Committees only on receiving the permission of the Council, Recognition granted in such cases will have only prospective effect.
