Seniority (I) Each year. lhc Bank shall preparc a list of officers in its service shovving their names in the order of their seniority on an all India basis and containing such other particulars as the Bank may determine. A copy of such list shall be kept at every branch or office of the Bank. Seeni01ity of an officer In a grade or scale shall bc reckoned with reference to the date of his appointment in (2) thal grade or scale, Where there are two or more offcrrs of the same length of service in that grade or scale, their inter-se-seniority shall be reckoned with reference to their seniority in the immediately preceding grade or scale or the previous cadre to which they belonged in the Bank's service, Where two or more officers have the same length of service in such preccding grade or scale or such previous cadre, their seniority shall be determined with reference to their seniority in the Bank in the immediately preceding grade or scale or cadre, as the case may be. Subject to the provision of sub-regulation (2) — the Inter-se-seniority of officers directly recruited in a batch to any grade or scale shall be reckoned with reference to the rank allotted to them at the time of such recruitment_ (b) If two or more officers have joined on the same date and no rank is allotted to them at the time of their recruitment, seniority in the common seniority list shall be determined on the basis of their date of birth, Inter-se seniority of the officers recruited under the general category and reserved category on the same date (C) shall be determined in accordance with the marks obtained by such candidates, without adding notional marks for the reserved candidates, Provided that the inter-se seniority of the officers promoted or empanelled for promotion prior to the appointed date shall not be prejudiced. 111 the case of an officer whose probation has been extended his seniority shall be reckoned just below all the officers, if any, recruited or promoted in the same batch along with him. Seniority of the officers in the service of the Bank on the appointed day shall be determined by the Board having regard to the provisions of this regulation and such other factors as it may consider appropriate for this purpose. Age of retirement The age of retirement of an officer employee shall be 58 years. Provided that the Bank may, at its discretion, on review by the Special Committee(s) as provided hereinafter in sub-regulation (2) retire an officer employee in public interest on or at any time after the completion of 55 years of age or on or at any time after the completion of 30 years of total service as an officer employee or otherwise, whichever is provided further that before retiring an officer employee, at least three months notice in writing or an amount equivalent to three months pay and allowances, shall be given to such officer employee : — 3(i) 39 Provided further that an officer aggrieved by the order of the Competent Authority, as provided in sub-regulation (2), may within one month of the passing of the order, give in writing a representation to the Board against the decision of the Competent Authority, and on receipt of such representation from the concerned officer * the Board shall consider his representation and take a decision within a period of three months. Where the Board decides that the order passed by the Competent Authority is not justified, the concerned officer shall be reinstated as though the Competent Authority has not passed the order. Provided also that nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to preclude an officer employee from retiring earlier pursuant to the option exercised by him in accordance with the rules in the Bank. Explanation : An officer will retire on the last day of the month in which he completes his age of retirement. An officer whose date of birth falls on the first of a month, shall retire on the last day of the preceding month. (2) The Bank shall constitute a Special Committee(s) consisting of not less than three members, to review, whether an officer employee should be retired in accordance with the first proviso to sub-regulation (1). Such Committee(s) shall, from time to time, review the case of each officer employee on the basis of criteria/guidelines given in Annex and no order of retirement shall be made unless the Special Committee(s) recommend(s) in writing to the Competent Authority the retirement of the officer employee. I-L Termination of service (a) Subject to sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 10, where the Bank is satisfied that the performance of an officer is unsatisfactory or inadequate or there is a bona fide suspicion about his integrity or his retention in the Bank's service would be prejudicial to the interest of the Bank, and where it is not possible or expedient to proceed against him as per the disciplinary procedure, the Bank may terminate his services on giving him three months notice or emoluments in lieu thereof in accordance with the guidelines issued by the government from time to time. (b) Order of termination under this sub regulation shall not be made unless such officer has been given a reasonable opportunity of making a representation to the Bank against the proposed order (c) The decision to terminate the services of an officer employee under sub regulation (a) above will be taken only by the Chairman (d) The officer employee shall be entitled to appeal against any order passed under sub regulation (a) above by preferring an appeal within one month to the Board of Directors of the Bank If the appeal is the order under sub regulation (a) shall stand cancelled, (c) Where an officer employee whose services have been terminated and who has been paid an amount of three months emoluments in lieu of notice and on appeal his termination is cancelled, the amount paid to him in lieu of notice shall be adjusted against the salary that he would have earned, had his services not been terminated and he shall continue in the Bank's employment on same terms and conditions as if the order of termination had not passed at all, (1) an officer employee services are terminated under sub regulation (a) above shall be paid gratuity, provident fund including employer's contribution and all other dues that may be admissible to him as per rules notwithstanding the years of service rendered, (g) Nothing contained hereinabove will affect the Bank's right to retire an officer employee under Regulation 13(1), (2) (a) An officer shall not leave or discontinue his service in the Bank

Without giving a notice in writing of a period of 1101 less than 3 months to the competent authority. Provided that the Competent Authority may at his discretion reduce the period of 3 months or 1131 to the requirement of notice. In case no notice has been given the concerned officer under clause (a), such officer shall be liable to pay to the Bank an amount equal to his substantive pay for the period of notice required of him. (c) An officer who has attained the age of 50 years may voluntarily retire after giving to the Competent Authority three months' notice. It is provided that this regulation shall not apply to an officer on deputation abroad, unless, after having been transferred or having returned to India he has resumed the charge of the post in India and served for a period of not less than one year. It is further provided that this sub-regulation shall not apply to an officer who seeks retirement from service for being absorbed permanently in a public body or a public sector undertaking to which he is on deputation at the time of seeking voluntary retirement. (d) The competent authority may, if so requested by the officer retiring pursuant to sub-regulation waive the forfeiture of voluntary retirement with respect to its full period or part thereof if the Competent Authority is satisfied that such waiver will not cause any administrative inconvenience. THE GAZETTE OF INDIA : EXTRAORDINARY [PART 11—SF.c- (3) (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the sub-regulation (2) an officer against whom disciplinary proceedings are pending shall not leave/discontinue or resign from service in the Bank without the prior approval in writing of the Competent Authority and any notice of resignation given by such an officer before or during the disciplinary proceedings shall not take effect unless it is accepted by the Competent Authority. (b) Disciplinary proceedings shall be deemed to be pending against an employee for the purpose of this regulation if he has been placed under suspension or any notice has been issued to him to show cause why disciplinary proceedings should not be instituted against him and will be deemed to be pending until final orders are passed by the Competent Authority. (c) The officer against whom disciplinary proceedings have been initiated will cease to be in service on the date of superannuation but the disciplinary proceedings will continue as if he was in service until the proceedings are concluded and final order is passed in respect thereof.
