 28/2009 Admin. (G-II) Dated May 21, 2009 The Central Adoption and Resources Authority (CARA), an autonomous body, of Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India has brought to the notice of Hon'ble coun vide D.O. Letter No. 16/1/2000-CARA dated 12.12.2008 that the direction of be recorded confidentially. As soon as order is made on the application for guardianship, the entire proceedings including the papers and documents should be sealed. Upon consideration of the above matter, the Hon'ble Court has desired that the Family Courts or the Court assigned to deal with such nature of cases under your administrative control should be thoroughly impressed to adhere to the directions given by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Lakshmi Kant Pandey v. Union of India; (1984) 2 SCC 244 by making sincere efforts to decide such cases within the time stipulated i.e. two months from the date of filing of the application. While enclosing a copy of the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court delivered in the above noted case alongwith copy of letter dated 12.12.2008 of Central Adoption Resource Authority, I am directed to request you to kindly impress upon the Judicial Officers presiding over the Family Courts or dealing with such matters working under your administrative control to ensure compliance of the above directions in right earnest. Family Courts (Court) Rules, 2006 providing for seeking permission to engage Advocate in appropriate cases. C.L. No. 1812009/ Admin. (G-I): Dated: April 29, 2009 The Hon'ble Court has noticed that the provisions as laid down in Section-13 of the Family Courts Act providing for a bar to engage a Legal Practitioner to appear before a Family Court in a suit or proceedings and has left it to the discretion of the Court to seek assistance of Legal Expert as Amicus Curiae if so required in the interest of Justice, are not being adhered to by the Courts and hence has desired that strict compliance be made of the provisions as provided in Section 13 of the Family Courts Act, 1984 and also in Rule-27 of the U.P Family Courts (CouH) Rules, 2006 which provides that the Court may permit the parties to be represented by a Lawyer if the case involves complicated questions of Law or considers that the party seeking the permission will not be in a position to conduct his/her case adequately or for any other reason and the reasons for granting such permission shall be recorded by the Court in its order. Help Desk to be provided in Family Court. C.L. No. 19/2009 Admin. (G-I): Dated: 29.04.2009 In order to give effect to the U.P Family Courts (Court) Rules, 2006, which have provided simplified procedure for making application in summary proceedings on just one form, upon consideration of the matter the Hon'ble Court has desired that a help desk be set up in each Judgeship to be manned by a senior clerk preferably a lady where there exists a family court to assist the parties approaching the court for providing necessary guidance in filling up the form and enlightening them to provide detailed information with regard to filing of cases, the manner and method of recording of evidence and the recovery of maintenance. Therefore, I am, directed to request you to kindly bring the contents of this Circular Letter to the knowledge of all the Presiding officers of the Family Courts working under your administrative control for strict compliance of the directions. Enforcement of provisions of Section 11 of Family Courts Act, 1984 C.L. No. 22/2009/Admin. 'G-I': Dated: May 2, 2009 The Hon'ble Court has noticed that the provisions as laid down in Section 11 of the Family Courts Act providing for holding in camera proceedings in every suit or proceedings to which the Act of 1984 applies if the family court so desires or either of the parties so desires, are not being observed by the Courts strictly. Now the Hon'ble Court upon consideration of the matter has desired that the Courts dealing with matters falling under Family Coun Act must strictly follow the provisions as contained in section 11 of the Act. Therefore, I am, directed to request you to kindly bring the contents of this Circular

Recommendation made by the Inter Ministerial Committee constituted by Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs, Government of India to curb the menace of the fraudulent overseas marriages and to determine legal action against such overseas Indian spouses. C.L. No. 43/2009/Admin. 'G-II' Dated: Allahabad 2.9.2009 The Secretary, Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs, Government of India has brought to the notice of Hon'ble Court on the issues relating to delivery of justice to the Indian women, who were married and thereafter deserted by their overseas husband to prevent such fraudulent marriages and to determine the possible legal action that could be taken against such overseas spouses. Upon consideration of the matter, the Hon'ble Court is of the view that the situation, however, needs attention as it involves the right of the married women subjected to cruelty on demands of dowry, concealment of earlier/existing marriages, marriages of convenience; and deceit in marital affairs. To overcome the problem and to determine possible legal action that could be taken against such Indian overseas spouses, the Hon'ble Court has desired that all such matters pending for maintenance before the Chief Judicial Magistrate and 1st Class Magistrates and the suits for restitution of conjugal rights, divorce and custody of children pending before the Civil Judges and Sessions Judges, wherever the family courts have not been set up, and all such cases, where the family courts are set up (in 12 districts in the State of Uttar Pradesh), should be put on Fast Track. Wherever the woman deserted by her overseas husband, is claiming maintenance, and is seeking some relief relating to her marriage including custody of children, the cases should be decided very expeditiously. All these cases should not be unnecessarily adjourned and that as far as possible these cases should be decided within a period of six months from the date they are instituted. I am further directed to say that upon consideration of the matter the Hon'ble Court has desired that the District Judges concerned shall report back the data of such cases in every six month, so that the Court may suggest measures, if any unnecessary delay is being caused in such cases. I am, therefore, directed to request you to kindly bring the above directions to the notice of all the Family Courts and all the Judicial Officers working under your administrative control for information and strict compliance.
