6. Interest—The interest payable on the debt shall be calculated at the rate applicable to debt under the law, custom or contract at a rate of six per cent per annum whichever is less and credit shall be given for all sums paid or credited first towards outstanding interest and the balance, if any, shall be credited towards repayment of the principal. The amount of principal and the interest outstanding will be considered as the net outstanding debt on the 1st day of October, 1975, for the purpose of scaling down. SEC. 30) THE GAZETTE OF INDIA EXTRAORDINARY pt. 7. Appointment of debt officer.—The Administrator may, for the settlement between the debtors and their creditors, appoint debt settlement officers and define the local areas in which they shall exercise jurisdiction

8. Application for debt or any of big creditors may apply within a period of six months from the date of notification under sub-section (2) of section 3. to the debt settlement officer appointed for the area in which the debtor holds any land to effect a settlement between the debtor and his creditors

9. Verification of application.—Every application to a debt settlement officer shall be in writing and be signed by the applicant and verified in such manner as may be prescribed. 10. Particulars to be in Every application presented by a debtor to the debt settlement officer shall contain the following particulars, namely:— (a) the place where he resides or holds land; (b) the particulars of all claims against him together with names and residences of his creditors; (c) the particulars of all his property, together with a specification of the value of such property and the place or places at which any such property is found; (d) the particulars of his household income; (e) a statement containing full particulars showing that he is a debtor; (f) a statement whether he has previously filed an application in respect of the same debt before the debt settlement officer, and if so, with what result. (2) Every application presented by a creditor shall contain the following particulars, namely:— (a) the place where the debtor resides or holds land; (b) the amount and particulars of his claim against such debtor; (c) a statement containing full particulars of the debtor. 11. Procedure on receipt of an application under section 8, the debt settlement officer shall pass an order fixing a date and place for hearing the application. (2) Notice of the order under subsection (1) shall be sent to creditors by registered post, acknowledgment due, at the cost of the debtor and Where the debtor is not the applicant, notice of the order under subsection (1) shall be sent to him in a similar manner

12. Notice calling creditors to submit statements of debts.—(1) On the date fixed, the debt settlement officer shall publish, in such manner as may be prescribed, a notice, calling upon every creditor of the debtor to submit a statement of debts owed to such creditor by the debtor. Such statement wherein the creditor shall show whether he is registered under the Punjab Registration of Money Lenders Act, 1938 (Punjab Act 3 of 1938), and had complied with the provisions thereof, shall be submitted to the debt settlement officer in writing within a period of two months from the date of publication of the notice; provided that, if the debt settlement officer is satisfied that any creditor was, for good and sufficient cause, unable to comply with such direction or to produce the documents required under subsection (1) of section 13 within the period fixed, it may extend the period for the submission of his statement of the debts owed to him or for the production of such documents. (2) Every debt owed to a single creditor of which no such statement has been submitted to the debt settlement officer in compliance with the provisions of subsection (1) shall be deemed to be duly discharged for all purposes and all occasions against such creditor;

and every debt owed to two or more creditors jointly of which such a statement or statements signed by all such creditors or their recognised agents has or have not been so submitted, shall be deemed to be so discharged against such creditors as have failed to submit the said statement but only to the extent of their respective shares in the said debt. (3) If the creditor or any of the joint creditors fails without sufficient cause to be present in person or by his recognised agent or, with the permission of the debt settlement officer by legal practitioner at any of the hearings fixed by the debt settlement officer or fails to produce full particulars and documents as required under sub-section (1). (t) 1322 THE GAZETTE OF INDIA EXTRAORDINARY [PART II, SECTION 3, SUB-SECTION (2), THE DEBT DUE TO HIM OR TO THE JOINT CREDITORS, AS THE CASE MAY BE, SHALL BE DEEMED FOR ALL PURPOSES AND ALL OCCASIONS TO HAVE BEEN FULLY DISCHARGED. (4) If any creditor proves to the satisfaction of the debt settlement officer that the notice was not served on him and that he had no knowledge of its publication or that he was unavoidably absent at any of the hearing fixed by the debt settlement officer, the debt settlement officer may revive that debt.

13. Procedure for submission of statements of Every creditor submitting in compliance with a notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 12 in statement of the debts owed to him shall furnish, along with such statement, full particulars of all such debts, and shall at the same time produce all documents (including entries in books of account) on which he relies to support his claims, together with a true copy of every such document: Provided that a decree or order of a civil court shall be conclusive evidence as to the amount of the debt to which the decree relates, but the amount may be reduced if it exceeds double the principal loan or has been made up by including simple interest at a rate higher than six per cent per annum. (2) The debt settlement officer shall after marking for the purpose of identification every original document so produced and verifying the correctness of the copy, retain the copy and return the original to the creditor.

14. Power of settlement officer to adjudicate—(1) If a creditor or a debtor, as the case may be, challenges the genuineness or enforceability of any debt included in an application, the debt settlement officer shall adjudicate upon the issue. (2) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the debt settlement officer under sub-section (1) may appeal therefrom to the Collector: Provided that an appeal shall lie from an order refusing to review or confirming on review a previous order. (3) The period of limitation for an appeal under this section shall run from the date of the order appealed against and shall be thirty days. (4) The debt settlement officer shall determine in the case of each debt shown in the application made by the debtor or his creditor under section 8, or in the statement furnished by the creditor under section 13, other than a debt declared non-genuine or unenforceable, the principal amount originally advanced, the amount paid by the debtor towards the principal or interest or both and the interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date the principal amount was advanced to the 1st day of October, 1975, however, that in calculating the interest, the payments made by the debtor from time to time shall first be adjusted against the interest due on the date of payment and then towards the principal and onwards interest shall be calculated on the principal amount thus remaining outstanding. (5) Where the debtor is found to have repaid to the creditor an amount equal to, or exceeding, double the principal amount, or the debtor on being apprised of such findings pays an amount which makes the total repayment equal to double the amount of principal, the debt settlement officer shall declare the debt as fully discharged and thereupon the provisions of clause (c) of section 5 shall apply to the debt. In case the amount repaid to the creditor is found to be in excess of double the principal, the debt settlement officer shall order the refund of the same to the debtor by the creditor. (6) The debt settlement officer shall estimate the annual household income of debtor and determine, for the purpose of section 5, his liability and capacity to repay the debts outstanding against him. (7) In the cases not falling under sub-section (5), the debt settlement officer shall, keeping in view the outstanding amount of principal and interest as determined under sub-section (4) and the paying capacity of the debtor determined under sub-section (6), as the case may be, order the payment of the amount in yearly equal instalments not exceeding seven: Provided that in no case the debtor shall be required to pay towards the principal and the interest any amount that exceeds double the principal: Provided further that the amount of yearly instalment in respect of all the debt exceeds the paying capacity of the debtor, the debts shall be proportionately reduced so that the yearly instalment is equal to the paying capacity and on payment of the instalment so determined, the debt or debts shall stand fully discharged. 15. Consequences of non-registration under Punjab Act 3 of recording findings under section 14, the debt settlement officer may, where a creditor is not registered in accordance with the provisions of the Punjab Registration of Money Lenders Act, 1938 (Punjab Act 3 of 1938), disallow the whole of his claim and declare the debt as fully discharged and where the creditor is found to have failed to comply with the provisions of the said Act with regard to maintenance and publication of accounts, disallow whole of the interest on the principal amount

16. Power of debt settlement officer to require attendance of persons and production of documents and to receive evidence.—A debt settlement officer appointed under section 9 may exercise all such powers connected with the summoning and examining of parties and witnesses and with the production of documents as are conferred on civil courts by the Code Of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), and every proceeding before the debt settlement officer shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding

17. Dismissal of application.—In the opinion of the debt officer any applicant fails to conduct his application with due diligence, the debt settlement officer may dismiss the application at any stage

18. Decision of debt settlement officer to be final.—If any question arises in any proceedings under this Act whether a loan or liability is debt or not, or whether a person is a debtor or not, the decision of the debt settlement officer shall be final, and shall not be called into question in any court

19. Bar of civil suits.—No civil court shall entertain— (a) any suit, appeal or application for revision— (i) to question the validity of any procedure or the legality of any order issued under this Act; and (ii) to recover any debt which has been deemed to have been duly discharged under the provisions of this Act; (b) any application to execute a decree passed by a civil court against a debtor; (c) any suit for declaration, or any suit or for injunction affecting any proceedings under this Act before a debt settlement officer

20. Review.—Any person considering himself aggrieved by an order of the debt settlement officer and who, from the discovery of any new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when such order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the order made against him, may apply for a review of such order to the debt settlement officer who may review the order and pass such order as he thinks fit: Provided that he shall not under this section pass an order reversing or modifying any order affecting any person interested without giving person an opportunity of being heard: Provided further that no application for review shall be entertained if presented more than twelve months after the date of the order sought to be reviewed

21. Bar of appeal.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no appeal or revision shall lie against any order passed by a debt settlement officer. 22. Appearance of party before debt settlement officer by agent or by legal practitioner.—In any proceedings under this Act, any party may be represented by an agent authorised in writing or with the permission of the debt settlement officer by a legal practitioner

23. Application of provisions of Parliament Act 36 of 1963.—The provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963 (Parliament Act 36 of 1963), shall apply to an application made by a creditor under section 8 as if the application were a plaint in a suit for recovery of the loan

24. Recovery of moneys due.—The order of the Debt Settlement Officer passed under this Act shall be executed by the civil court having jurisdiction in the area as if it were a decree or order of that court. 1324 THE GAZETTE OF INDIA EXTRAORDINARY [PART 25. Power to make rules.] (1) The Administrator may, by notification in the Chandigarh Gazette, make rules to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act. (2) The rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to previous publication in the Chandigarh Gazette. (3) [Omitted.] 26. Amendment of section 4 of Punjab Act 3 of 1938.—Section 4 of the Punjab Registration of money Lenders Act, 1938 (Punjab Act 3 of 1938), shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:— "(2) No money lender shall carry on the business of advancing loans unless he gets himself registered under sub-section (1). (3) Any money lender who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (2) shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees for the offence and two thousand rupees for every subsequent offence."

27. Repeal—The Haryana Relief of Agricultural Indebtedness Act, 1975 (Haryana Act 22 of 1975), as extended to the Union territory of Chandigarh, is hereby repealed. [No. K. C.
