CHAPTER V Encumbrances on Surplus Land In this Chapter— (a) "creditor" means a person to whom a secured debt or claim is owing and "debtor" means the person by whom such debt is owed; refers to secured debt or claims due in (b) "excluded debt" respect of— (i) any liability in respect of any sum due to any society registered or deemed to be registered under any law relating to co-operative societies in force in any part of Madhya Pradesh ; (ii) any liability in respect of maintenance whether under decree of court or otherwise; (iii) any liability due to a bank or a company; (iv) a mortgage claim against property in the hands of a subsequent transferee who has taken the transfer in order to satisfy the mortgage; (v) any liability arising between mortgagor and mortgagee in respect of land revenue of the mortgaged property which has been paid by the mortgagee on behalf of the mortgagor; "secured debt or claim" means debt or claim subsisting on the appointed day whether due or not due and secured by the mortgage of or a charge on the surplus land but shall not include land revenue or anything recoverable as land revenue or any money for the recovery of which a suit is barred by limitation. (1) Any creditor of a holder of surplus land may, within days from the publication of the final statement under sub-section (6) Of section 11, file an application to the competent authority specifying therein the amount and particulars of his debt or claims against such holder. (2) An application under sub-section (1) shall contain such further particulars as may be prescribed and shall be signed and verified in accordance with the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for signing and verifying plaints. THE MADHYA PRADESH CEILING ON AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS ACT, 1960 (3) The claim of every creditor other than a creditor mentioned in the return filed Under section 9, who fails to file an application under sub- 357 section (1) shall be deemed for all purposes and all occasions to have been discharged against the debtor. (4) The provision of section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 shall apply to an application under this section. (TX of 24. Upon receipt of an application under section 23 if the competent authority finds that any suit or proceeding is pending against the holder of surplus land for the recovery of any amount in respect of a secured debt or concerned claim the competent authority shall issue a notice to the Court and thereupon such suit or proceeding shall be stayed. (P Upon receipt of an application under sub-section (1) of section 25. 2.8 the competent authority shall fix a date for hearing and shall cause a notice of the date of hearing together with a copy of the application received, to be served on the holder and shall cause a copy of such application together with a copy of the return filed under section 9 to be affixed On a conspicuous place in its office. (2) The competent authority shall also issue notice to every creditor, who according to the return filed under section 9 has an interest in the surplus land but has not filed any application under sub-section (1). Such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the return. (3) Every creditor who has filed an application under section 23 or to whom a notice is issued under sub-section (2) shall, on or before such date as may be fixed by the competent authority file a written statement of his claim signed and verified in the manner prescribed by rule 15 of Order VI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (VI of 1908). Such statement shall be submitted in person or by an agent authorised in writing or by registered post with acknowledgment due and every claim not so submitted shall be deemed for all purposes and all occasions to have been discharged as against the debtor. Provided that if a creditor files a statement of claim within a further period of two months and satisfies the competent authority that such creditor was for good and sufficient cause unable to file the same before the date fixed for hearing, the competent authority may revive the claim. (4) On the date on which the case is fixed for hearing the creditor shall produce the documents in his possession or control which he bases his claim. If such documents are not produced at such hearing or at an adjourned hearing fixed for this purpose by the competent authority, the competent authority may declare such claim to be discharged for all purposes and all occasions against the debtor: Provided that if the competent authority is satisfied that any creditor was for good and sufficient cause, unable to produce such documents he may require them to be produced on a date fixed for the purpose and may revive the claim.

26. Subject to the provisions of section 27, the 'competent authority shall, after hearing the debtor and the creditor, if present: and making a such further enquiry as, it may deem fit, determine the amount which should be paid to creditors out of the amount of compensation determined under section 16:

(1) The competent authority shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, re-open all transactions made twelve years before the last transaction or before the 1st January 1940, whichever is earlier, and as far as may be, ascertain in respect of each loan the date on which it was originally advanced. It shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any agreement or law to the contrary, calculate the interest due at six per centum per annum or such lower rate of interest as may have been agreed upon between the parties. It shall also see now the Limitation Act, 1963 (36 of 1963). Withholding of compensation money. Submission of claim and production of documents. Determination of &bt. Recovery of unpaid amount. also determine the amount of principal, if any, of each loan which would have remained unpaid if the calculation of interest had been made as herein provided: (2) If the competent authority finds that the loan was originally advanced prior to the 1st January, 1940, then it shall reduce the principal determined under sub-section (1) by twenty per centum. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no competent authority shall, in respect of any secured debt or claim to which this Chapter applies, award on account of arrears of interest a sum greater than the principal of the loan as determined under sub-section (4) If the competent authority finds that nothing is due to the creditor, it shall pass an order discharging the secured debt or claim. (5) The amounts determined due shall not carry any interest after the date of determination. (6) Nothing in sub-sections (1) to (5) shall apply to the amount due for such debts shall be determined in accordance with the terms of the contract between the parties or any law for the time being in force.

28. Subject to rules framed under this Act, the competent authority shall, where there are two or more creditors, settle the order of priority in which each creditor shall be entitled to receive the amount due to him.

(1) The compensation payable to a holder under section 16 shall be distributed between the secured creditors in the order of their priority and if there are more than one such creditors holding the same order of priority, it shall be distributed rateably between them in proportion to the amounts determined due. (2) The amount determined payable to the creditors shall be payable in as many instalments as may be fixed for the payment of compensation to the holder of surplus land under the provisions of this Act. (3) If the total amount determined payable to creditors is less than the compensation payable under section 16 the amount payable to creditor shall be deducted from such compensation and the balance shall be payable to the holder of surplus land.

30. If the amount of compensation payable to the holder under section 16 is not sufficient to satisfy the claims of the creditors as determined under this Chapter, the competent authority shall record an order specifying— (a) the amount remaining unpaid in respect of each claim ; (b) the name of the creditor to whom it is due; and (c) the particulars of the property other than surplus land belonging to the holder remaining encumbered in respect of each claim. (1) If the property of a holder other than surplus land is en-

31. cumbered in respect Of any claim of the creditor in whose favour an order under section 30

has been passed, the creditor may within one year of the date Of such order apply to the civil court for passing a preliminary decree for sale of the encumbered property and the civil court shall accordingly pass a preliminary decree for sale for the amount remaining unpaid in respect of that amount as specified in the said order fixing such time as it may deem fit. (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) any creditor in whose favour an order under section 30 has been passed may recover--the amount THE -MADHYA PRADESH CEILING ON AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS Act, 1960 359 remaining unpaid in respect of any claim which is due to such creditor according to the said order from the holder in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue. (1) Any creditor who applies to a civil court under section 31 32 shall be liable to pay such court-fees upon the amount declared as due as he would be liable to pay upon a plaint filed for the recovery of the same and the civil court shall not proceed with the application until such court-fee has been paid Provided that no court-fees shall be payable if court-fees have already been paid in respect of a debt. (2) The amount of court-fees paid by the creditor shall form costs of the proceeding and be recoverable from the debtor. 33. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the competent authority under this Chapter may file an appeal against such order, (i) in the court of the District Judge within whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of surplus land which is subject to mortgage or charge, as the case may be, lies if the secured debt or claim does not exceed Rs. 10,000; (ii) in the High Court if the secured debt or claim exceeds Rs. 10,000. (2) No appeal under sub-section (1) shall lie (a) to the Court of District Judge, unless it is preferred within 30 days of the communication of the order appealed against; (b) to the High Court, unless it is preferred within 60 days of the communication of the order appealed against.

34. The decision of the District Court or the High Court, as the case may be, in an appeal under section 33 shall be final and where no appeal has been preferred the decision of the competent authority shall be final.
