JAIL [CHAPTER V Short Title. Definitions. Classes prisoners not released. of to Madhya Pradesh Jail Department Notification No. 2374-1294-111+1, dated 23-9-1964 Rules I. These Rules may be called the Madhya Pradesh Prisoner's Release on Probation Rules 1964

2. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—(1) "Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Prisoner's Release on Probation Act, 1954 ; (2) "Board" means the Board constituted under sub-rule (5) of rule 6 ; (3) "Form " means a form appended to these rules:— (4) "Guardian" means a Probation Officer appointed by the Government or such other Government Officer Who may be appointed for the purpose or a person professing the same religion as the prisoner, or a secular institutions, or a society belonging to the same religion as the prisoner, under whose supervision or authority the prisoner released under section 2 of the Act is placed by the Government ; (5) "Superintendent" means the Superintendent of a prison in which the convict to be released under the Act is confined

3. The following classes of prisoners shall not be released under Act : (a) Those convicted of offences under the Madhya Bharat Vagrants, Habitual Offenders and Criminals (Restrictions and settlement) Act, 1952, or any law in force in any region of the State corresponding to the said Act, or the Explosive Substances Act, 1908 or under the following Chapters or sections Of the Indian Penal Code, Chapters v-A, VJ and VI and section 216-A, 224 and 225 (if it is a case of an escape from a jail), 231, 232 303, 311, 328, 361, 376, 382, 386 to 389, 392 to 402, 413, 459, 460 and 489-A" ; (b) Those convicted under section 7 of the Act or who are serving the unexpired sentence under sub-section (3) of section 8 of the Act, or whose licence has been previously revoked on account of the breach of the conditions of the licence ; CHAPTER V JAIL MANUAL 421 (c) Those whose applications for release, other than an application for remission of sentence under section were on a previous occasion rejected by the Government ; (d) Those convicted by a Court Martial; (e) Those whose applications for temporary release under section 31-A of the prisoner's Act, 1900 or rules thereunder have been rejected; (f) Those who have been prosecuted and convicted for the breach of the rules under section 31 A of the Prisoner's Act, 1900. Explanation.—the rule in clause @ precludes a convict from himself applying a second time for release under section 2 of the Act, but the Government may direct the Inspector-General of Prisons to place any case, which has already been once rejected, for reconsideration before the Board

4. Save the prisoners specified in rule 3 any other prisoner who has served one third of his sentence of imprisonment or a total period of five years with remissions, whichever is less may be released by the Government on licence

5. For the purposes of these Rules the following principles shall be observed in computing the period of sentence of imprisonment, namely—

(a) When a prisoner has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for several offences and the sentences of imprisonment have been ordered to run concurrently, the longest single sentence which the prisoner is undergoing shall be deemed to be the term of his imprisonment; (b) When a prisoner has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for several offences and the sentences of imprisonment have been ordered to run consecutively, the total period which the prisoner has to undergo shall be deemed to be the term of his imprisonment; (c) Where a prisoner has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for several offences and the sentences of imprisonment have been ordered to run consecutively, the total period which the prisoner has to undergo shall be deemed to be the term of his imprisonment; (d) Sentence of transportation for life or of imprisonment for life shall be reckoned as twenty years.

Explanation.—The expression "sentence of imprisonment" in these Rules shall include imprisonment in default of the payment of fine and imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

6. (1) Any prisoner eligible for release under these rules may make an application in Form A to the Superintendent. Such form shall be obtained at the cost of the prisoner and supplied free of charge to prisoners, to their relative and to persons offering themselves as their guardians.

(2) On the receipt of the application the Superintendent shall examine the application to see if the prisoner and his proposed guardian have duly filled in the columns of the application, meant to be filled in by them.

If the application is in order, the Superintendent shall entertain it and cause it to be entered in a register maintained in Form B. If the prisoner is not eligible under rule 3 he shall reject the application and inform the prisoner of his order. If the prisoner is eligible for release under rule 4 he shall fill in the columns in the application meant to be filled in by him and forward the same as soon as may be, to the District Magistrate of the district in which the prisoner was convicted. If the application is not in order, the Superintendent shall return it to the prisoner for necessary correction or supply the omissions.

(3) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (2) the District Magistrate shall immediately consult the Superintendent of police and the Probation Officers, where one is appointed and, if necessary, the District Magistrate of the district in which the prisoner ordinarily resides and on receipt of their reports fill in the entries meant to be filled in by him and shall, without delay, forward the same to the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madhya Pradesh.

(4) The District Magistrate shall maintain a register in Form C in which all applications received from the Superintendent under sub-rule (2) shall be duly entered. (5) The applications received from the Districts by the Inspector-General of Prisons shall be considered by a Board consisting of the Home Secretary to the Government of CHAPTER V] JAIL MANUAL Madhya Pradesh in the Home Department or any other officer empowered in this behalf by the Government, the Inspector-General of prisons, Madhya Pradesh or the Deputy Inspector General of Prisons as the case may be, and a non-official member to be appointed by the Government. Meeting Of the Board shall be held ordinarily once every month to make necessary recommendations. The Secretary to the Government in the Home Department or any other officer empowered in this behalf by the Government shall be the Chairman of the Board. A non-official member shall unless the State Government terminates his appointment earlier hold Office for a term of three years. (6) The Government shall, on the receipt of recommendation of the Board, pass such orders as it may deem proper

7. A prisoner, whose release on licence is sanctioned by the Government, shall be granted a licence in form D. Three copies of such licence shall be prepared for each prisoner. One shall be retained by the Government another shall be sent to the Superintendent for delivery to the guardian of the prisoner and the third shall be forwarded to the District Magistrate for information

8. As soon as the Superintendent receives the orders of the Government he shall communicate the same to the prisoner concerned and in the case of an order of release shall, through the District Magistrate inform the guardian also of the order and call upon him to present himself to take charge of the prisoner. On the guardian presenting himself, the Superintendent shall deliver to him the copy of the licence received from the Government, and place the prisoner in his charge and take his signature in the Register in Form B in token of his having taken charge of the prisoner.

9. (1) It shall be the duty of the guardian to see that the conditions of the licence are fulfilled. He shall look after the conduct and welfare of the licensee and generally act in LOCO PARENTIS. If the licensee's conduct is found to be bad it shall be the duty of the guardian to report the fact to the District Magistrate. (2) In dealing with the licensee the guardian, when he is a Probation Officer appointed by the Government, shall be governed by the rules, if any; framed by the Government for the guidance of Probation Officer. Information to the prisoner guardian. 423 to and Guardian's Duty. JAIL MANUAL [CHAPTER V Revocation. (3) If on enquiry by the District Magistrate it is found that the guardian has failed in his duties and does not generally act in LOCO PARENTIS the District Magistrate may propose to the Government a new guardian whose name may be substituted in the licence after making necessary enquiries about his fitness to act as such. Before the Old guardian is replaced by a new one the District Magistrate shall cause a notice to be served on the guardian to show cause as to why he should not be replaced. If the guardian presents himself then after hearing him and if he does not, present himself, then without hearing him, the District Magistrate shall consider and decide whether or not to recommend to the Government for the replacement of the guardian and shall act accordingly. 10. (1) The District Magistrate on receiving information from the guardian or any other source, of the breach by the licensee of the conditions of the licence, shall cause a notice to be served on the licensee to show cause why his licence should not be revoked. If the licensee presents himself in response to the notice, then after hearing him and, if he does not present himself, then without hearing him, the District Magistrate shall consider and decide whether or not to recommend to the Government for the revocation of the prisoner's licence and shall act accordingly. (2) In case the District Magistrate decides to recommend the revocation of the licence: he may, at the same time, if he considers that the licensee is unfit to be allowed to remain at large under the licence, order his arrest and detention in the prison pending the receipt of the orders of the Government. (3) The Government on receipt of the District Magistrate's recommendation pass such orders as it may deem proper. (4) An order of revocation of licence shall be in Form E and shall be served upon the licensee if detained in prison by the Superintendent, and if not detained in prison by the officer in charge of police station. (5) The order of revocation shall be noted on the licence and in the registers maintained by the District Magistrate and the Superintendent. (6) If a prisoner released on licence under the Act escapes from the supervision or of a guardian or fails to return to prison on production of his licence, the Guardian shall immediately inform the District Magistrate and the Superintendent and report to the nearest police station, and action shall be taken against the prisoner as in a cognizable case

11. On the release of a prisoner under the Act, the Superintendent shall retain the warrant under which the prisoner was committed to prison by the court which sentenced him until the period of his sentence with remissions, if any, earned by him during the period of his confinement in jail, has expired. The period during which a prisoner is absent from prison under the provisions of the Act on a licence which is in force shall be reckoned as part of the period of imprisonment to which he was sentenced for the purpose of computing the period of his sentence. When the convict released on licence has finished the sentence, the Superintendent shall return the warrant or warrants to the court which issued it or them

12. On the expiry of the period of licence otherwise than by revocation the guardian shall forthwith inform the licensee that he is absolved from the observation of conditions of the licence, shall make a note to the effect on the licence and shall return it to the Superintendent, 13. When a prisoner released on licence under the Act happens to be a police registered convict the Superintendent of the prison shall inform the Superintendent of Police of the district of which such convict is resident of his release on licence together with the name and address of the guardian and shall at the same time, inform him of the date on which the final release of the licensee is likely to take place. On the final release of the prisoner the police register slip shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of Police. 14. (1) In each case the District Magistrate shall determine whether or not the proposed guardian is fit to act as such having regard to his status, antecedents, and the degree of control that he may exercise on the informant. (2) Parents or relatives of a prisoner may be appointed guardians if the District Magistrate is satisfied that they are fit to act as such guardians. (3) An officer of a prison shall in no case be eligible to act as guardian unless the Inspector-General of Prisons Madhya Pradesh, sanctions it. 425 Warrant commitment.
