CHAPTER - DETECTION

AND PREVENTION OF TAX EVASION 57. (1) (2) (3) The State Government may constitute a committee for detection and investigation of evasion oi tax under this Act or the Act repealed by this Act. The committee shall consist of such number of members as the State Government may determine. The committee shall be assisted by such omcers specified in section 3 as the State Government may appoint for the purpose. The atilhority and the officers appointed to assist it shall perform such functions as the State Government may direct. (a) (b) If upon any information which has come into. its possession the ccmrnittee has reason to believe that any dealer has evaded payment of tax or is indulging 'in evasion of tax under this Act or under the Act repealed by this Act, it may draw its report in the matter and send it to the commissioner to investigate into the tax evasion by such dealer. If in any emergent case, upon any information which has been received by the commissioner he has reason to •yspect that a dealer is attempting to evade or has reason to believe that a deaier has evaded payment Df tax or is indulging in evasion of tax, he may, for reasons to be recorded in wHting, direct any of the officers referred to in clauses (c) to (g) of sub- section (1) of section 3 to proceed to investigate in to the tax evasion by such dealer, On the receipt Of the report from the committee in respect Of a dealer OT on his own motion in pursuance of the provisions of clause O)) of sub-section (2), the comn-issioner shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed .- (a) require the dealer to produce before him any accounts,- registers or documents relevant to his business or to furnish such other information as he may deem fil for scrutiny, or 108 (131) (b) 24 2005 inspect the place of business of such dealer and for this purpose all accounts, registers and documents relating to the business of such dealer and all the goods kept in such place of business shall be open to inspection by the commissioner. (4) (5) If on scrutiny of the records produced by the dealer or on inspection of his place of business under sub-section (3), the commissioner is satisfied that the dealer has evaded payment of tax payable by him for any year. he may for reasons to be recorded in writing. setze such accounts. registers or documents relating to the busineclß of such dealer as he considers necessary. and grant a receipt therefor to the dealer and shall retain them only (or so long as may be necessary, for examination thereof or for assessment tax or for prosecution. For the purpose of clause (b) of sub-section (3). the commissioner may - (a) (b) (a) (b) enter and search any place of business of such dealer or any other place whether such place be the place. of his business or not. where the commissioner has reason to believe that the dealer keeps or is for the time being keeping any accounts, registers or documents of his business or stock of goods relating to his business and the commissioner may, for exercising the powers under this clause, seal or break open the lock of any door, box, locker, safe, almirah or any other receptacle' where the keys thereof are not produced on demand or are not available; and also search any person who leaves or is about to enter or is already in the place referred to in clause (a), if the commissioner has reason to suspect that such person has secreted about his person. books of accounts or other documents relating to the business of such dealer. If in the course or scrutiny of accounts, registers or documents produced by the dealer or the course of inspection Of the Place of business of such dealer, the commissioner has reason to believe that the dealer has stored or kept goods liable to tax, without accounting for them in books, registers or accounts maintained by him in the course of his business. with a view to their surreptitious sale in order to evade payment of tax, in any building, place or vehicle under the ownership or control of the dealer in either case whether exclusively or in association with some other person or in any building, place or vehicle in each case belonging to some other person with express or implied permission of such other person, the commissioner may enter any such building, place or vehicle and inspect and verify if the goods have been accounted for and in the event of his reasonable belief that the dealer has not accounted for such goods with the intention of evading tax, the commissioner may seize all such goods and take all necessary steps for their removal, proper custody and preservation : Provided that a list of all goods seized under this clause shall be prepared by the commissioner in presence of at least two respectable persons and a copy thereof shall, on demand, be furnished to the dealer or, as the case may be, to the person from whose possession or custody they were seized. The commissioner shall as soon as possible, after seizure of the goods under clause (a), serve upon the dealer, a notice in the prescribed form to show cause within a period of thirty days of service of such notice as to why a penalty equal to five times the amount of tax payable and calculable on the price which such goods would have fetched on their assumed sale in Chhattisgarh, on the date of seizure, be not imposed on him for the dealer's default in not making entries in respect of such goods in his books 108 (132) 24 2005 Of account or register or other documents, as the case may be, maintained by him in the course of his business. (c) If the commissioner, after taking into consideration the explanation of the dealer and after giving him an opportunity of being heard, is satisfied that the entries relating to the said goods were not made in the books of accounts, registers or other documents of the dealer without any proper justification, the commissioner shall pass an order imposing a penalty not less than three times but not exceeding five times of the amount of tax referred to in clause (d) The commissioner may, at any time after the service of the notice under clause (c) and before passing an order imposing penalty under clause (c), release the goods seized if the dealer or the person from whom the goods were seized furnishes security in the form of cash security or bank guarantee to the satisfaction of the commissioner. in each case for such reasonable amount as the commissioner may specify by order in writing with due regard to the amount of penalty proposed. On payment by the dealer of the penalty imposed upon him under clause (c), if the security furnished is in the form of bank guarantee, the bank guarantee shall be released and if such security has been furnished in the form of cash security, it shall be adjusted towards the penalty so imposed and the balance, if any, shall be refunded to the dealer. (e) Where no security is furnished under clause (d), the dealer shall pay the amount of penalty, within thirty days of the service of the order imposing penalty on him and on payment of such amount goods seized shall be released forthwith (f) If the dealer fails to pay within the period specified in clause (e) the penalty imposed under clause (c), the commissioner shall, subject to other provisions of this section, dispose of the goods by way of sale in such manner as may be prescribed and apply the sale proceeds thereof towards the penalty imposed and the expenses incurred on account of and incidental to the custody, protection, preservation and sale of such goods and shall refund the balance, if any, to the dealer or person entitled (g) The penalty imposed under clause (c) shall be without prejudice to any other action under any Other provision of this Act. (h) Where any objection is made to the seizure of the goods seized under clause (a) on the ground that such goods do not belong to the dealer or are not otherwise liable to seizure, the commissioner shall proceed to decide the objection ' Provided that no such objection shall be entertained - (i) where, before the objection is made, the goods seized had already been sold, or (ii) Where the commissioner considers that the objection was designedly or unnecessarily made. (i) All questions including question relating to right, title or interest in the goods seized arising between the parties to such proceeding or their representatives and relevant to the adjudication of the claim or objection, shall be determined by the commissioner dealing with the claim or objection. 0) 2005 Upon the determination of the question referred to in clause (i), the commissioner shall, in accordance with such determination :- (i) allow the claim or objection and release the seized goods either wholly or to such extent as he thinks fit. or (ii) disallow the claim or objection. or (iii) pass such order as, in the circumstances of the case, he deems fit. where any claim or objection has been adjudicated upon under clause (j) or where the commissioner refuses to entertain a claim or objection under the proviso to clause (h), any such order made shall be deemed to be an order relating to assessment of tax against a dealer under section 21 and shall be subject to the same condition as to appeal, revision or any other remedy under this Act. 58. (7) (1) (2) (3) (4) Where the commissioner, apprehends any resistance to entry, search or seizure of goods he may for reasons to be recorded in writing requisition the services of any police officer of the State Government, having jurisdiction over the local area in which such entry, search or seizure is to be made, to assist him for all or any of the purposes specified in (3) or clause (a) of sub-section (5) or clause (a) of sub-section (6) and it shall be the duty of such police officer to comply with such requirement, the commissioner while making entry, search and seizure under this section shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act exercise the same power and follow the same procedure as are exercised by and are required to be followed by a Police Officer in relation to entry, search and seizure under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (No. 2 of 1974). The State Government and or the commissioner if it or he is satisfied that it is necessary so to do with a view to prevent or check evasion of tax under this Act may, by notification, setup or erect check post or barriers at such place or places the State excluding railway premises as may be specified in the notification that the commissioner shall not set up a check post or erect a barrier a period exceeding six months at a time. An officer not below the rank of a sales tax officer shall be in-charge of the check post (hereinafter referred to as the check post officer) and shall be assisted by the other category of the officers. Subject to the other provisions of this section a check post officer shall exercise all powers conferred on him under this section "the driver or person in charge of any vehicle or the owner or person in charge of the goods carried in a vehicle (hereinafter referred to as the transporter) transporting such goods as may be notified by the State Government in this behalf (hereinafter referred to as the notified goods) shall carry with him an invoice, bill or challan or any other document by whatever name called relating to the notified goods being transported in the vehicle, issued by the consignor of the goods giving such particulars as may be prescribed. • Every transporter transporting any notified goods shall, before crossing any check post or barrier set up or erected under sub-section (1), deliver to the check post officer a declaration duly signed by the consignor in such manner, in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed. 108 (133) Establishment of check posts and erection of barriers. 108 (134) (5) (6) (7) (8) (9) (10) (11) 24 2005 prescribed. A separate declaration shall be filed in respect of the consignment or consignments relating to each consignee where the goods are being imported into Chhattisgarh and of each consignor where the goods are being sent outside the State. No declaration in relation to goods to be delivered in Chhattisgarh shall be accepted if the Consignee in Chhattisgarh is shown or described as "self" unless the full particulars and address of the person who will take delivery of the goods at the destination in Chhattisgarh are furnished. (b) The form of declaration specified in clause (a) shall be obtained by a registered dealer in the prescribed manner and on payment of the prescribed fee. The transporter shall stop the vehicle at every check post or barrier and keep it stationary for so long as may reasonably be required by the check post officer and allow him to search the vehicle and inspect the notified goods and document referred to in sub-section (3) and shall, if so required, give him his name and address and the names and addresses of the owner of the vehicle and of the consignor and the consignee of the goods. The check post officer shall have the power to detain or seize such of the notified goods or the vehicle along with the goods, - (a) in respect of which there is no declaration under sub-section (4) or any such declaration filed is false or incorrect either in respect of the kind of goods or the quantity or value thereof; or (b) as are not shown in the documents referred to in sub-section (3) or in respect whereof there are no such documents : or (c) in respect whereof the said documents are false or are reasonably suspected to be false If the check post officer, after searching the vehicle and verifying the documents or the declaration, finds any omissions referred to in sub-section (6), he may presume, until contrary is proved that an attempt was being made to facilitate the evasion of tax in respect of such goods and he may, after recording the reasons therefore in writing, seize such goods or the vehicle along with the goods in such manner as may be prescribed. After seizing the notified goods under sub-section (7) the check post officer shall prepare a list of all such goods bearing his own signature and signature of the transporter and shall take all the measures for their safe custody. The check post officer seizing the notified goods or the vehicle along with the goods under sub-section (7) shall record the statement of the transporter on all facts of the case and also obtain the particulars about the consignor or consignee of the goods and the vehicle seized. The reasons, if any, for violation of any provision of this section shall also be recorded. If after considering the statement of the transporter the check post officer is satisfied that the explanation is satisfactory and that there was no attempt to evade payment of tax in respect of the goods seized, he shall record his findings giving reasons therefor and release the goods or the vehicle along with the goods to the transporter in such manner as may be prescribed. If the check post officer is not so satisfied, he shall serve on the transporter a notice in the prescribed form requiring him to show cause ordinarily within fifteen days of the service of the notice, why a penalty of a sum not exceeding (135) e (12) (13) (14) (15) (16) (17) (18) 24 2005 five times the amount of tax which would have been payable if the notified goods were sold within the State on the date of such seizure, may be specified in the notice, should not be imposed upon him. The officer seizing the notified goods, at any time during the pendency of the proceedings under sub-section (13), may on furnishing of security in the form of cash security or irrevocable bank guarantee for such amount being deposited as, in his opinion, would be sufficient to cover the penalty likely to be imposed, release the goods or/and the vehicle in favour of the transporter. The check POSI officer after taking into consideration the explanation, if any, of the transporter and giving him an opportunity of being heard, shall if he is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing with the explanation and the statement of the transporter, discharge the notice and release the goods or the vehicle with or without the goods seized, in favour of the transporter in such manner as may be prescribed. If the said officer is not so satisfied, he shall record his finding accordingly giving reasons therefor and shall pass an order imposing such penalty not exceeding the sum specified in the notice, as he may deem fit: Provided that the amount of penalty shall not be less than three times but not exceeding five times of the amount of tax which would have been payable if the goods were sold within the State. A copy of the order imposing penalty under sub-section (13) shall be served on the transporter. The penalty or such part thereof as remains after adjustment of any amount deposited under sub-section (12) shall be deposited in the prescribed manner within fifteen days of service of the copy of order imposing the penalty. In default the check post officer shall cause the notified goods to be sold in such manner as may be prescribed and apply the sale proceeds thereof towards the penalty and refund the balance, if any, to the transporter. If the sale proceeds of the goods are not sufficient to cover the amount of penalty or the goods cannot be sold despite the efforts made for the same, the said officer shall cause the vehicle to be sold in the aforesaid manner and apply the sale proceeds thereof towards the balance of penalty and refund the balance of such sale proceeds, if any, to the dealer. Where the officer seizing the goods, at any time during the pendency of the proceeding under sub-section (11) or (13), is of the opinion that the notified goods are subject to speedy and natural decay or when the expenses of keeping them in custody are likely to exceed their value, he may cause them to be sold in such manner as may be prescribed without waiting for the completion of the proceedings relating to the imposition of penalty and keep the sale proceeds thereof in deposit till the completion of said proceedings. The amount so kept in deposit shall be applied towards such penalty, if any, as may be imposed and the balance, if any, shall be refunded to the transporter according to the provisions of sub-section (15). Every order under sub-section (13) shall, subject to the provisions of section 48 and 49, be final. The consignor or the consignee shall preserve the copy of the declaration and other documents relating to the goods covered by the declaration for such period as may be prescribed and produce them before the assessing authority whenever demanded by it within that period.
