FOREWORD

This is a glorious moment for me to write this foreward for the latest and updated volume I of University Calendar. It goes without saying that being an established institution each and every activity of the University is governed by the written rules and regulations which have been framed over a long passage of time. These leave little scope for tilting of the rules and therefore bind the acts in a positive framework. As norms and values go hand in hand and in fact are interwoven these have been incorporated in the present volume in an appropriate shape. It contains guidelines of functioning for its statutory functionaries and provides a glimpse to all those interested in learning the functioning pattern of the University. It also acts as a Bible for all University officials who are guided by it while taking decisons and acting in the ultimate interest of our studentship.

It is our Academic Branch which is mainly instrumental in framing such vital documents and then comes our Press in picture in giving black and white shape to these in bound and usable form. Both have done tremendous job. While all efforts have been made to ensure that no error finds place in this; nevertheless in case any such thing is noticed or brought to the notice by any well-wisher the same shall be instantly rectified.
