order notified in the Gazette, regulate, restrict or prohibit— (a) the fishing in any specified area by such class or classes of fishing vessels as may be prescribed, or (b) the number of fishing vessels which may be used for fishing in any specified area; or (c) the catching in any specified area of such species of fish and for such period as may be specified in the notification, or (d) the use of such fishing gear in any specified area as may be prescribed. (2) In making an order under sub-section (1), the Government shall have regard to the following matters, namely :— (a) the need to protect the interests of different sections of the community engaged in fishing, particularly those engaged in fishing using traditional fishing craft such as catamaran, country craft or canoe; (b) the need to conserve fish and to regulate fishing on a scientific basis; (c) the need to maintain law and order in the sea; (d) any other matter that may be prescribed. 5. Prohibition of use of fishing vessel in contravention of any order made under section 4.—No owner or master of a fishing vessel shall use, or cause or allow to be used, such fishing vessel for fishing in any manner which contravenes an order made under section 4. • Provided that nothing in such order shall be construed as preventing the passage of any fishing vessel from, or to, the shore, through any specified area to, or from, any area other than a specified area for the purpose of fishing in such other area or for any other purpose : Provided further that the passing of such fishing vessel through any specified area shall not in any manner cause damage to any fishing nets or tackles belonging to any person who engages in fishing in the specified area by using any traditional fishing craft such as catamaran, country craft, or canoe. 6. Licensing of fishing vessels.—The owner of a fishing vessel may make an application to the authorised officer for the grant of a licence for using such fishing vessel for fishing in any specified area. It shall be in such form, (a) application under sub-section (1) contain such particulars, and accompanied by such fees, as may be prescribed. (3) The authorised officer may, after making such enquiry as he deems fit and having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (1) either grant or refuse to grant, to the owner of the fishing vessel, a licence for using such fishing vessel for fishing in the specified area or specified areas mentioned in such licence. (4) In granting or refusing licence under subsection (3), the authorised officer shall have regard to the following, namely :— (a) whether the fishing vessel is a registered fishing vessel; (b) the condition of the fishing vessel including the accessories (b) and fishing gear with which it is fitted; (c) any order that may be made under section 4; (d) any other matter that may be prescribed. (5) A licence granted under this section shall be in such form and including conditions as to payment of such fees subject to such conditions, and furnishing such security for the due performance of the conditions, as may be prescribed : 54 Provided that different fees, and different amounts by way of security, may be prescribed in respect of licences for different classes of fishing vessels. (6) A licence granted under this section shall be valid for the period specified therein or for such extended period as the authorised officer may think fit to allow in any case.

7. Prohibition of fishing using fishing vessels which are not licensed.—No person shall, after the commencement of this Act, carry on fishing in any specified area using a fishing vessel which is not licensed under section 6 : Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any fishing vessel, which was being used for fishing immediately before the commencement of this Act, for such period as may be specified by the Government by notification in the Gazette. 8. Cancellation suspension and amendment of licence.—If the authorised officer is satisfied, either on a reference made to him in this behalf or otherwise, that— (a) a licence granted under section 6 has been obtained by misrepresentation as to an essential fact, or (b) the holder of a licence has, without reasonable cause, failed to comply with the conditions subject to which the licence has been granted or has contravened any of the provisions of this Act or any order or rule made thereunder, then, without prejudice to any other penalty to which the holder of the licence may be liable under this Act, the authorised officer may, after giving the holder of the licence a reasonable opportunity of showing cause, cancel or suspend the licence or forfeit the whole or any part of the security, if any, furnished for the due performance of the conditions subject to which the licence has been granted. (2) Subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, the authorised officer may also vary or amend a licence granted under section 6.

9. Registration of fishing vessels.—The owner of every vessel used or intended to be used for purposes of fishing and kept in the State, not being a fishing vessel registered under section 11 of the Marine Produce Export and Development Authority Act, 1972 (Central Act 13 of 1972), shall register such vessel under this Act. (2) Every application for registration of such vessel shall be made by the owner thereof to the authorised officer in such form, and shall be accompanied by such fees, as may be prescribed— (a)

before the expiration of one month from the date on which he first became the owner of such vessel ; or (b) before the expiration of three months from the commencement of this Act, whichever is later : o O 55 Provided that the authorised officer may, for sufficient reason to be in writing, extend the time-limit for registration by such period as he thinks fit. (3) The authorised officer shall issue to the owner of the vessel registered by him a certificate of registration in the prescribed form and shall enter in a register to be kept by him, in such form as may be prescribed, the particulars of such certificate. (4) Registration once made shall continue to be in force until it is cancelled by the authorised officer. (5) Every vessel registered under this section shall carry a registration mark, assigned to it by the authorised officer, displayed in the prescribed manner. (G) No vessel, other than a registered fishing vessel, shall be entitled to licence under section 6

10. Information to be given to authorised officer about movement of fishing vessels.— Where a registered fishing vessel moves from the area of one port to the area of another port, the owner of such fishing vessel shall give information to that effect, in the prescribed manner, to the authorised officer by whom such fishing vessel was registered and also to the Port Officer having jurisdiction over the area where such fishing vessel has been moved. Returns to be made by owners of registered fishing vessels.— Every owner of a registered fishing vessel shall furnish to the authorised officer at the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner such returns as may be prescribed. (2) The authorised officer may inspect any registered fishing vessel any time to verify the accuracy of any return made under this section. Appeals of orders under sections 6, 8, and 9.— A decision of the authorised officer under section 6, section 8 or section 9, granting or refusing to grant licence for fishing vessel or cancelling, suspending, varying or amending such licence or registering, or cancelling the registration of, a vessel shall, subject to any right of appeal under section 13, be final. Appeals against orders refusing to grant licence, Any person aggrieved by an order of the authorised officer refusing to grant licence for a fishing vessel or cancelling, suspending, varying or amending such licence or failing to register a vessel or cancelling the registration of such vessel may within thirty days from the date on which the order is communicated to him, prefer an appeal to such authority as may be prescribed (hereafter in this Act referred to as the appellate authority) : provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days If it is satisfied that the appellant has been prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time. (1), (2) On receipt or an appeal under sub-section the appellate authority shall, after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it deems fit as expeditiously as possible. (3) Every order passed by the appellate authority under this section shall be final

CHAPTER III Penalties 14. Power to enter and seize fishing vessel. —The authorised officer may, if he has reason to believe that any fishing vessel is being, or has been, used in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any order or rule made thereunder or any of the conditions of the licence, enter and search such vessel and impound such vessel and seize any fish found in it. 15 Disposal of seized fishing vessel.— The authorised officer shall keep the fishing vessel impounded under section 14, such place and in such manner as may be prescribed. In the absence of suitable facilities for the storage of the fish seized, (2) the authorised officer may, if he is of the opinion that the disposal of such fish is necessary, dispose of such fish and deposit the proceeds thereof in the prescribed manner in the office of the adjudicating officer. 16. If the authorised officer has reason to believe that any fishing vessel is being, or has been, used in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any order or rule made thereunder or any of the conditions of the licence, he shall make a report thereof to the adjudicating officer, (2) The adjudicating officer shall hold an enquiry into the matters mentioned in the report, in the prescribed manner, after giving all the parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard

17. Penalty.—(1) The adjudicating officer shall, after the enquiry under section 16, decide whether any person has used, or caused or allowed to be used, any fishing vessel in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any order or rule made thereunder or any of the conditions of the licence and any such person, on being found guilty by the adjudicating officer, shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding— or five thousand rupees, If the value of the fish involved is (a) less than one thousand rupees, five times the value of the fish, if the value of the fish involved is (b) more than one thousand rupees; or five thousand rupees, in any other case, being a case not involving any fish, as may be adjudged by the adjudicating officer. 57 (2) In addition to any penalty that may be imposed under sub-section (1), the adjudicating officer may direct that— (a) the registration certificate of the fishing vessel which has been used, or caused or allowed to be used, in the manner referred to in subsection (1) or the licence, any condition of which has been contravened, shall be— (i) cancelled or revoked, as the case may be; or (ii) suspended for such period as the adjudicating officer deems fit; or (b) the fishing vessel or fish that may have been impounded or seized, as the case may be, under section 14 shall be forfeited to the Government : Provided that no fishing vessel shall be forfeited under clause (b) if the adjudicating officer after hearing the owner of such vessel or any person claiming any right thereto is satisfied that the owner or such person had exercised due care for the prevention of the commission of such offence

18. Constitution of Appellate Board and appeal to Appellate The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, constitute one or more Appellate Board or Appellate Boards. (2) The Appellate Board shall consist of three members of whom one shall be a person who is or has been a district judge, who shall be appointed as the Chairman of the Appellate Board. (3) Where only one Appellate Board is appointed, that Appellate Board shall have jurisdiction throughout the State, and where more than one Appellate Board is appointed, the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, define the jurisdiction of each Appellate Board. (4) Any person aggrieved by an order of the adjudicating officer may, within thirty days from the date on which the order is made, prefer an appeal to the Appellate Board having jurisdiction to hear such appeal : Provided that the Appellate Board may entertain any appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, but not after the expiry of sixty days from the date aforesaid, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time. (5) No appeal under this section shall be entertained by the Appellate Board unless the appellant has, at the time of filing the appeal, deposited the amount of penalty payable under the order appealed against : Provided that, on an application made by the appellant in this behalf, the Appellate Board may, if it is of the opinion that the deposit to be made under this subsection will cause undue hardship to the appellant, by order in writing dispense with such deposit either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose. (6) On receipt of an appeal under subsection (4), the Appellate Board may, after holding such enquiry as it deems fit and after giving the parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard, confirm, modify or set aside the order appealed against and the decision of the Appellate Board shall be final, and — (a) if the sum deposited by way of penalty under subsection (5) exceeds the penalty directed to be paid by the Appellate Board, the excess amount, or (b) if the Appellate Board sets aside the order imposing penalty, the whole of the sum deposited by way of penalty, shall be refunded to the appellant

19. Revision by Appellate Board.—The Appellate Board may call for and examine the records of any order passed by an adjudicating officer under section 17 and against which no appeal has been preferred under section 18 for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of such order or as to the regularity of the procedure and pass such order with respect thereto as it may think fit : Provided that no such order shall be made except after giving the person affected a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter

20. Powers of adjudicating officer and Appellate Board in relation to holding enquiry under this Act.—(1) The adjudicating officer and the Appellate Board shall, while holding an enquiry, have all the powers of a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:— (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses ; (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document; (c) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office; (d) receiving evidence on affidavits; and issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents. (2) The adjudicating officer or the Appellate Board shall, while exercising any power under this Act, be deemed to be a Civil court for the purposes of sections 345 and 346 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974)

21. Offences by Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person Who, at the time the offence was committed, was, as in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly : O O 59 Provided that nothing contained in this subsection shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence, (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly. Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,— company " means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals ; and (b) director in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm

CHAPTER IV Miscellaneous 22. Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to survey vessels belonging to the Central Government or any State Government or any public undertaking. (2) If the Government are of the opinion that, having regard to the purpose of this Act, it would not be in the public interest to apply all or any of the provisions of this Act to any class or classes of fishing vessels used for fishing in any specified area or specified areas, they may, by subject to such conditions notification in the Gazette, exempt, as they may think fit to impose, such class or classes of fishing vessels used for fishing in such specified area or specified areas, as they may specify in the notification, from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act. 23, Protection of action taken in good faith.—(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or any officer or authority for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any order or rule made thereunder. (2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or any officer or authority for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any order or rule made thereunder

24. Power to make The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act. 60 (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely : (a) the matters to which regard shall be had in making an order under subsection (1) of section 4 ; (b) the form of the application for licence under subsection (1) of section 6, the particulars which it shall contain and the fees which shall accompany it ; (c) the matters to which regard shall be had in granting or refusing a licence under clause (d) of subsection (4) of section 6, the fees payable for the licence and the security for the due performance of the conditions of the licence ; (d) the procedure to be followed in granting or refusing a licence under section 6 or cancelling, suspending, varying or amending such licence or in registering a vessel under section 9 or cancelling such registration ; (e) the form of the application for registration of a vessel under section 9, the particulars which such application shall contain and the fees which shall accompany the application ; the form of the certificate of registration and the form of the register referred to in subsection (3) of that section, and the manner in which the registration mark referred to in subsection (5) of that section shall be displayed ; (f) the manner in which the information referred to in section 10 shall be given ; (g) the time and manner in which the returns referred to in subsection (1) of section 11 shall be furnished ; (h) the authority to whom appeals shall be preferred under subsection (1) of section 13 ; (i) the place and the manner in which an impounded fishing vessel shall be kept under subsection (1) of section 15, and the manner in which the proceeds of the disposal of the seized fish shall be deposited with the adjudicating officer under subsection (2) of that section ; (j) the procedure of the enquiry by the adjudicating officer under subsection (2) of section 16 ; (k) the qualifications of the members of the Appellate Board other than the Chairman, the fees and allowances payable to the Chairman and other members of the Appellate Board, and the procedure of the Appellate Board ; (l) the fees payable for the supply of copies of documents or orders or for any other purpose of matter involving the rendering of any service by any officer or authority under this Act ; (m) any other matter which is to be, or may be, provided for by rules under this Act. (3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly, while it is in session, for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule

25. Repeal and saving The Kerala Marine Fishing Regulation Ordinance, 1980 (12 of 1980), is hereby repealed. (2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under this Act.
