STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REA<ONS Though thc.ec are ex:nsive fishery resources in Manipur, the production or fish is very low due to lack proper llianagegnent and deve!opment activities of these resources. Some of the species of fishes available in this State arc also facing extinction from want of proper conservation or natural habits and habitats of thc fishes. Over and above, fish plays an important role in the improvement of nutrition and forms an especially valuable addition to our diet. Tn order to tak!e this industry efficiently and economically, therefore, a sperate Fisheries Department was created in thic State, its main function being to plan the development on sound scientific line under expert advice. Experience has, however, shown that much headway can't be made in the absence of any legislation for checking indiscriminate slaughter of fish in this State. The proposed Bill seeks to provide for the protection. conser- vation and development of the available fishery resources by taking immediate necessary steps. The production of fish in the State will also by increased manifolds by making appropriate managements. Hence, this Bill. Imphal, Dated the———, 1988
