Setting aside sale 27. (I) Where immovable property has been sold in execution of a certificate, the certificate-debtor, or any person whose interests are affected by the sale, may at any time within thirty days from the date of, the sale, apply to the Certificate Officer to set aside the sale, on his depositing— (a) for payment to the certificate-holder, the amount specified in the proclamation of sale for the 'recovery of which the sale was ordered,- with interest thereon at the rate of six and a quarter per, centum per annum, calculated from the date of the sale to the date when the deposit is made; (b) for payment to the purchaser, as penalty, a sum equal to five per cent of the purchase money but not less than one rupee; and (c) for payment to the Collector (where the certificate is for a public demand payable to the Collector), such outstanding charges due to Government under any law for the time being in force as the Collector certifies to be payable by the certificate-debtor. (2) Where a person makes an application under section 28 for setting aside the sale of his immovable property, he shall not, unless he withdraws, that application, be entitled to make or prosecute an application under this section. 28. (1) Where immovable property has been sold in execution of a certificate, the certificate-holder, the certificate-debtor, or any person whose interests are affected by the sale, may, at any time within sixty days from the date of the sale, apply to the Certificate Officer to set aside the sale, on the ground that of 1963] THE ORISSA PUBLIC DEMANDS RECOVERY ACT, 1962 (Secs. 29-30) notice was not served under section 6 or on the ground of a material irregularity in the certificate proceedings or in publishing or conducting the sale : Provided that— (a) no sale shall be set aside on the ground of any such material irregularity unless the Certificate Officer is satisfied that the applicant has sustained substantial injury thereby ; and (b) in the case of an application by the certificate-debtor the Certificate Officer, shall, before passing an order setting aside a sale under this section, require him to pay the amount actually found due from him. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Certificate Officer may entertain an application made after the expiry of sixty days from the date of the sale if he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for so doing. 29. The purchaser at any sale of immovable property in execution of a certificate may, at any time within sixty days from the date of the sale, apply to the Certificate Officer to set aside the sale on the ground that the certificate-debtor had no saleable interest in the property sold, or that the property that purported to exist at the time of the sale, or that the purchaser has suffered substantial injury owing to any misdescription in the sale proclamation of the interest of the certificate-debtor in the property sold. 30. (1) Where no application is made under section 27, 28 or 29 or where such an application is absolute or made and disallowed, the Certificate Officer shall be deemed to have made an order confirming the sale, and thereupon the sale shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 28, become absolute. (2) Where such an application is made and allowed, and where in the case of an application under section 27, the deposit required by that section is made within thirty days from the date of the sale, the Certificate Officer shall make an order setting aside the sale. 31. (1) Whenever assets are realised, by sale or otherwise in execution of a certificate, they shall be disposed of in the following manner, namely— (a) there shall be paid to the certificate-holder the costs incurred by him; (b) there shall, in the next place, be paid to the certificate-holder the amount due to him under the certificate in execution of, which the assets were realised (c) if there remains a balance after these sums have been paid; there shall be paid to the certificate-holder therefrom any other amount recoverable under the procedure provided by this Act which may be due to him upon the date upon which the assets were realised ; and (d) the balance, if any, remaining after the payment of the amount, if any, referred to in clause (c) shall be paid to the certificate-debtor. (2) If the certificate-debtor disputes any claim made by the certificate-holder to receive any amount referred to in clause (c) the Certificate Officer shall determine the dispute. 32. (1) If the purchaser of any immovable property sold in execution of a certificate is resisted or resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession of the property, he may apply to the Certificate Officer. (2) The Certificate Officer shall fix a day for investigating the matter, and shall summon the party against whom the application is made to appear and answer the same. 33. (1) If the Certificate Officer is satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was occasioned without any just cause by the certificate-debtor or by some person on his behalf, he shall direct that the applicant be put into possession of his property ; and* if the applicant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession, the Certificate Officer may also, at the instance of the applicant, order the certificate-debtor or such other person to be detained in the civil prison for a term which may extend to thirty days. (2) If the Certificate Officer is satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was occasioned by any person other than the certificate-debtor claiming in good faith to be in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some person other than the certificate-debtor, the Certificate Officer shall make an order dismissing the application. 34. (1) Where any person, other than the certificate-debtor, is dispossessed by the purchaser of immovable property which has been sold in execution of a certificate he may make an application to the Certificate Officer complaining of such dispossession. (2) The Certificate Officer shall thereupon fix a day for investigating the matter and shall summon the party against whom the application is made to appear and answer the same.

35. Where the Certificate Officer satisfied that Bon fide claimant to the applicant was in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some person other than the certificate-debtor, he shall direct that the applicant be put into possession of the property.

36. Any person, not being a certificate-debtor.
