 Punjab Municipal (Presiclent and Vice-President) Election Rules, 1994 Published vide Punjab Government Legislative Suppliment Part III dated 17-11-94 I. Short title and commencement. - (1) These rules may be called the Punjab Mg. nicipal (President and Vice-President) Election Rules, 1994. (2) They shall come into force at once

2. Definitions.- In these rules, unless the context otherwise require, (a) 'Act' means the Punjab Municipal Act, 191 1; (b) 'Election 'means Election of a President and Vice-President of a Municipality; (c) 'Deputy Commissioner' means Deputy Commissioner of the concerned district; (d) 'Government' means the Government of the State of Punjab in the De- partment of Local Government; and (e) 'Gazetted Officer' means a Government servant belonging to any All In- dia Specialist or State Service or any other Government servant holding a post which may have been declared by the competent authority to be a Gazetted post

3. Manner of election.- The Deputy Commissioner or any other officer au- thorised by him in this behalf (here-in-after referred to as the Convener) shall, within a period of [fourteen] days of the publication of the notification of the election of members of a newly constituted Municipality, fix, by giving not less than forty-eight hours notice to be served at the ordinary place of residence of all the elected members, a date for convening the first meeting of the elected members of such Municipality by stating in the notice that at such meeting, the oath of allegiance will be adminis- tered to the members present and a!so statir:2 that the President and Vice-President or Vice-Presidents as the caseÄTT$ESÆjl be elected : [Provided that all subsequent meetings to fill casual vacancies of the offices of President and Vice-President of V*ce- Presidents as the case may* shall be convened by the Convener.]- (2) If due to any reason, the elected member is unable or refused to take oath of al- •legiance as required by sub-rule (1) within the stipulated period, then he will be allowed to take such oath of allegiance in the subsequent meeting unless he is Å- barred from taking the same by the Government for any reason. In case any- sych 1. Substituted for "ninety" vide Punjab Govt. Notification No. G.S.R. dated 28.2.2003

2. Added vide Punjab Govt.Notification NO. G.S.R. dated 28.2.2003. Municipal (President and Vice- President) Election Rules, 1994, Rule 4 "%-n-ber does not take the oath of allegiance as aforesaid, then fresh election to the onstituency to which that member represents, shall be hêld.] 2[4. Voting by show of hands. - (1) The voting for. the offices of President, Senior Vice-Presidgnt any Vice- President, as the case may be, shall be by show of hands. (2) The person presiding oyer the meeting convened under rule 3, shall keep a brief record in writing.) COMMENTARY "No confidence motion". - Passing of "No confidence motion" is almost akin to electing an of. fice.bearer Such resolution cannot be passed by mere raise of hands - Voting shall be by secret ballot - It is specifically provided in the election rules that the voting shall be by ballot and utmost secrecy shall be ensurd -Resolution passed by raise of hand despite strong objections - Resolution cannot be sustained. Manner of voting by ballot. - Identity of voter - Rule requiring election by ballot by writin 'yes' and 'no' on the ballot paper specially used for such voting - Original proceedings ofelectio in Punjabi script mentioned that the voters were allowed to writ in Punjabi 'haan' or 'naah' having same meaning when translated in English - Votes containing 'haan' or 'naah' in place of 'yes' 'no' are to be treated valid and cannot be rejected - However, the votes containing both 'yes' and 'no•or Shaan' and certainly disclose the identity of a voter and indicates that such aq- ditional mark including 'tick mark' not perm icsible under the rule or instructions, must be on the in- structions of the candidate to ensure identity of the voter and ensure that he casted his vote in favour of that particular candidate - Both, the rules and the Act require secrecy of votes - All such votes containing marks or remarks not permitted by rule have to be rejected and the candidate curing more valid votes as per the rules have to be declared elected - Where the rule prescribe a specific manner of voting in its plain reading and meaning, no other interpretation can be given p the same to include or exclude something in it. .A reading of rule 4(1) of the 1994 Rules makes unambiguously clear that the voter has to write 'yes'or 'no' and he is not supposed to write 'yes' and 'no'. It would not in any manner be in accord- ance with the requirement of the rule. The voter has to write either 'yes' or 'no' and is not required to write both which would not be secret voting in accordance with the rule. The rule requires the voting by ballot and the manner in which the ballot is to be marked. In B.S. Minhas v. Indian Statistical Institute, AIR 1984 SC 363, it has been held that "if an act is required to be done in the manner prescribed, that can only be in accordance with the procedure prescribed otherwise it will not be accepted to have been done at all." Applying the principle laid down by the Supreme Court, no other meaning than the one expressed in the rule itself can be given in respect of the manner of voting in the election to the office of President of the Municipal Council." Manner of Voting - Secret or open ballot. It was observed by the Supreme court of India that the Rules are clear, unambiguous and do not leave any room for doubt. Inasmuch as there was a contest, the convener ought to have proceeded for voting through ballot papers observing utmost secrecy. There could not have been an open voting which; though demanded, should have been firmly ruled out. Sub-rule (2) of Rule 4 reposes confidence in the convener, i.e. the person presiding over the meeting to assist any member who illiterate or otherwise incapable to cast his vote by writing 'Yes' or 'No' on the ballot paper on behalf of such member. It is unfortunate that the members wanted the voting to be conducted in a manner inconsistent with the Rules. The convener should have over-ruled any such demand and should have proceeded to hold the election in the manner contemplated by the Rules. The convener was also justified in adjourning the meeting. Substituted vide Punjab Govt. Notification G.S.F. 52/P.A. 3/1 dated July 5, 1999

2. Substituted vide Punjab Govt. Notification, NO. G.S.R. 3/1 dated 17th May, 2001

3. Rajinder Pal Kaur v. State of Punjab, 2002(1) 4. Sudesh Kumar Aggarwal v. State of Punjab, 2001 (3) RPER (Civil) 1, Attributed Municipal (President and Vice-President) Election Rules, 1994, Rule 563 relying on the ground of seeking guidance from the higher officers and the Government". There was hardly any occasion for such seeking guidance and adjourning the meeting. The Supreme Court also rejected the contention that the High Court was justified in directing the meeting to proceed from the point wherefrom it adjourned and directing the members who had staged a walk over to be excluded from the meetings as by their conduct they had shown that they were not participating in the meeting. It was observed further that where the two candidates were duly nominated candidates and the stage was set. Even if a few members including one of the candidates had left the place of meeting, nothing prevented them from coming back and joining the voting. If only the convener had commenced the voting and the members, who had earlier staged a walk-over, had returned and expressed their desire to join in voting, they could not have been prevented from doing so. The High Court was justified in directing the meeting to be resumed from the point at which it was adjourned but was not justified in directing the members, who had walked out, from being excluded from participation at such reconvened meeting

5. Conduct of election. - (1) When the office of the President or the Vice-President is to be filled, - (a) if only one candidate for the office is proposed, he shall be declared to have been elected; (b) if there is more than one candidate, the candidate who obtains the largest number of votes shall be declared to have been elected; and (c) if two or more candidates obtain an equal number of votes, the person presiding over the meeting shall at once decide between the candidates by drawing a lot in the presence of the members attending the meeting. (2) When there are two offices of Vice-President of a Municipality and both such offices are to be filled, - (a) voting shall take place at the same election for both the offices of the Vice-Presidents of a Municipality and each member of the Municipality shall record one vote only; (b) the candidates who obtain the largest number of votes shall be deemed to be elected Provided that if owing to the fact that two or more candidates have obtained an equal number of votes, it is impossible to decide which of the two candidates have obtained the largest number of votes, the matter shall be decided by a lot in the manner specified in clause (c) of sub-rule (1); and (c) the candidate obtaining the largest number of votes shall be deemed to have been declared by the Municipality to be the Senior Vice-President and the candidate obtaining the second largest number of votes shall be deemed to be the junior Vice-president, provided that if both the candidates elected have obtained an equal number of votes, the matter shall be decided by a lot in the manner specified in clause (c) of sub-rule (1). NOTES Voting by show of hands - Declaration of result - Change of recorded vote - Not permissible. According to Blackwell's Law of Meetings - 9th Edition, page 60. In common law voting at all meetings is by a show of hands. Voting by show of hands means counting the persons present who are entitled to vote and who choose to vote by holding up (raising) their hands. Any person having legal right to be present at the meeting may, at the conclusion of the voting, demand a poll and I. Gurdeep Singh v. State of Punjab, 2000(2) RCR(Civil) 7 IS(SC). //
