Owing to the shortage of institutions importing technical education in the State, a large number of students desirous of pursuing technical education fail to get admission. With a view to solving this problem, permission was granted for establishment of such institutions in the private sector. These institutions are affiliated to various Universities from whom they do not get proper co-operation and guidance. It has therefore, been decided to establish a Technical University for the advancement and development of technical education in the State.

The Uttar Pradesh Technical University Bill, 2000 is introduced accordingly.

2. Subs. by sec. 7 of U.P. Act No. 21 of 2013.
