STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Uttar Pradesh Vocational Education and Training Act, 2010 (U.P. Act no. 20 of 2010) was enacted to provide for the establishment and constitution of a Board of Vocational Education and Training in Uttar Pradesh with a view to producing the skilled workers and making them employable by providing Vocational Education and Training, giving opportunities to school dropouts from traditional education stream by providing them Vocational Education and Training so as to enable them for suitable employment, giving Vocational Education and Training opportunities for highly qualified but unemployed fellows in order to minimise their large numbers, giving option to those who are unemployed in order to impact on uncontrolled population growth, excessive pressure on agricultural land leading to decreasing employment opportunities therein. Since the duties and functions of the Board provided under the said Act are now being substantively performed and discharged successfully by the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission and also by Vyavasayik Pariksha Parishad, U.P., there is no need to establish the Board under the said Act. It has been, therefore, decided to repeal the said Act.
